

MARS HOME FOR YOUTH

School Supply Wish List

Residents and commuting students from over a dozen regional school districts attend Mars Home for Youth's Longmore Academy, which provides a supportive educational environment. Your donations make it possible to continue to provide a creative and productive learning environment throughout the school year. For more information about MHY visit www.marshomeforyouth.org

GIFT CARDS

The youth at MHY often display creative talents, so it is important to allow them to have some creative freedom. Additionally, residents will request books to read, and we provide the reading material for the reading classes. Given these circumstances, please consider gift cards in your donation collection to the following venues:

Michaels
Jo-Ann Fabrics
Barnes & Noble
Borders
Wal-Mart
Target
